VOICE CHOICES OCTOBER 1-7, 2003

KATY GRANNAN

Last chance to catch the segment of Grannan's terrific two-part show devoted to big color photos of figures in the landscape. Though Grannan is clearly playing off her subject's classical and romantic roots, her vision of the body in nature isn't conventional, sentimental, or cool. Standing, sitting, or sprawling on the grass, these young men and women seem at once shockingly undefended and fiercely self-possessed, all the more so when stripped bare. ALETT
