

SALON 94

artnet news

On View

Here Are 22 Unmissable Spring Gallery Shows in New York, From Joan Mitchell's Big Moment to Jeff Wall's Spooky Surrealism

Galleries are putting on some of their biggest stars to coincide with Frieze Week.

Caroline Goldstein & Sarah Cascone, May 1, 2019

As Frieze New York touches down on Randall's Island, galleries all over the city are breaking out their big guns in hopes of luring out-of-town collectors to their spaces.

Here are some of the week's biggest openings, plus a selection of shows we're looking forward to later in the month.

"Marina Adams" at Salon 94 Bowery
May 3–June 22

Marina Adams, Cheops (2019). Photo courtesy of Salon 94.

With her largest works to date, including the eight-foot-tall Mambo, Marina Adams continues her use of bold color combinations and architectural compositions. On the occasion of this exhibition, the artist's second at Salon 94, Adams is releasing a new catalogue documenting the past decade of her career.

Salon 94 (Bowery) is at 243 Bowery.