

What to See in Los Angeles: 15 Exhibitions Feature Ja'Tovia Gary, Hank Willis Thomas, Betye Saar, Lauren Halsey, Julie Mehretu, Arcmanoro Niles, and More

Victoria L. Valentine

February, 13 2020

Installation view of Timothy Washington: Citizen/Ship, California African American Museum, Los Angeles (Sept. 25, 2019-March 1, 2020). | Photo by Elon Schoenholz

“Timothy Washington: Citizen/Ship” @ California African American Museum, Los Angeles | Sept. 25, 2019-March 1, 2020

A key figure in the 1960s and 70s Black Arts Movement, Timothy Washington has lived and worked in Leimert Park for more than 50 years. This exhibition is his first-ever installation and it brings together a variety of mixed-media works that “meld American patriotism with Afrofuturistic narratives of fantasy and science fiction.” The museum is also showing LA Blacksmith, “Cross Colours: Black Fashion in the 20th Century,” and “Southern Vernacular” works from its collection. Plus, on Saturday, Feb. 15, CAAM is hosting a book swap and art workshop with the Free Black Women’s Library.